

Attraction

Vaikom Mahadeva Shiva Temple

The famous Vaikom Satyagraha was organized here by Indian National Congress; Mahatma Gandhi was here to support the movement. It was organized to fight against the age old custom of prohibiting the backward communities from entering the temple and even using the public roads around it.

St. Mary's Church

St. Mary's Church is a church in Vechoor, that was consecrated in 1463. It stands on the Eastern bank of Vembanad Lake. It belongs to the Syro-Malabar Catholic Major Archeparchy of Ernakulam-Angamaly. It is a centre of pilgrimage because the Church has a painted image of St. Mary believed to be a true copy of St. Luke's portrait of Mary. The image is believed to have the power to make miracles.

About Us

Lake Vechoor Villas is situated on the outskirts of North Kumarakom, vechoor, Vaikom a backwater and kayal laced unending view. The land is along the eastern bank of the Lake Vembanadkayal the largest lake in Kerala (Near Thanneermukkom Bund).

It is a hub of other major tourist destinations in Kerala such as Cochin, Kumarakom (famous for its bird sanctuary), Alapuzha (Alleppey), Munnar, Thekkady, Kovalam, Kollam, Thiruvananthapuram (Trivandrum), Varkala, Kozhikode (Calicut).

The villa is located on the Vechoor village Vaikom, on a 3 acre piece of lush green land, typical of Kerala, featuring canals that flow into the Lake, as well as ponds, erstwhile paddy fields and all sorts of exotic flora and fauna. Pristine, picturesque and tranquil – it offers the best possible surroundings you need to relax and re-charge.
